

International Awards & Nominations

2010

- Tafelmusik's The Galileo Project: Music of the Spheres was nominated for The International Year of Astronomy 2009/Mani Bhaumik Prize for Excellence in Astronomy Education and Public Outreach

2009

- Tafelmusik receives 2009 Betty Webster Award from Orchestras Canada
- The Minor Planet Institute of the International Astronomical Union names a minor planet (an asteroid) after Tafelmusik, in recognition of Tafelmusik's contribution to the IYA2009
- Beethoven Symphonies Nos. 7 and 8 CD (Analekta) nominated for a 2009 JUNO Award

2008

- Vivaldi L'estro armonico CD (Analekta/Sony BMG) nominated for a 2007 JUNO Award
- Vivaldi L'estro armonico CD (Analekta/Sony BMG) selected as Editor's Choice by Gramophone Magazine UK in February 2008
- Vivaldi L'estro armonico CD (Analekta/Sony BMG) designated BBC Music Magazine "Orchestra Recording of the Month" in January 2008

2007

- Music Director Jeanne Lamon receives Betty Webster Award from Orchestras Canada
- Music Director Jeanne Lamon receives honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters degree from Mount Saint Vincent University.
- Canadian Independent Music Award nomination for "Favourite Classical Artist/Group or Duo of the Year".

2006

- Music Director Jeanne Lamon awarded the Roy Thomson Hall Award for Exceptional Achievement in Music
- Awarded eighth and ninth JUNO Awards for Beethoven Symphonies Nos. 5 and 6 (Analekta) and Baroque Adventure: The Quest for Arundo Donax (Analekta)
- Canadian Independent Music Award nomination for Beethoven Symphonies Nos. 5 and 6 (Analekta)

2005

- Awarded sixth and seventh JUNO Awards for Cleopatra with Isabel Bayrakdarian (CBC) and Jean-Philippe Rameau: Dardanus; Le Temple de la Gloire (CBC)
- American Grammy Award nomination for Jean-Philippe Rameau: Dardanus; Le Temple de la Gloire (CBC)
- Canadian Independent Music Award nominations for Italian Oratorios with Matthew White and Cleopatra with Isabel Bayrakdarian (CBC)
- Opus Magazine Record Award for Cleopatra with Isabel Bayrakdarian (CBC)
- Chris Award, Columbus International Film & Video Festival, Four Seasons Mosaic

2004

- Jeanne Lamon receives the Toronto Musicians' Association Musician of the Year Award.

2003

- Five Gemini nominations for international documentary Le Mozart Noir, including "Best Performance"

- Only Canadian ensemble to win a Banff Rocky Award in the category of Performance Documentary for Le Mozart Noir
- Diapason D'Or (France) for Bach Orchestral Suites CD
- Rose D'Or nomination (Switzerland) for Le Mozart Noir television documentary
- Fourth Lieutenant Governor's Award for the Arts ($50,000) for excellence in developing private sector and community support
- Indie Award nomination for "Classical Album of the Year" - Scarlatti Salve Regina / Vivaldi Stabat Mater with contralto Marie-Nicole Lemieux (Analekta)
- Fifteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth Juno Award nominations for:
 - Chants Sacrés et Profanes
 - Bach Orchestral Suites
 - Le Mozart Noir

2002

- Fourteenth JUNO Award nomination for A Baroque Feast
- Third Lieutenant Governor's Award for the Arts for excellence in developing private sector and community support

2001

- Eleventh, twelfth & thirteenth JUNO Award Nominations for:
 - Bach Peasant & Coffee Cantatas
 - Bach Motets
 - Telemann Orchestral Suites

2000

- Jeanne Lamon receives the Order of Canada
- Tenth JUNO nomination for Handel's Arias and Dances with soprano Karina Gauvin

1998

- Second Lieutenant Governor's Award for the Arts ($25,000) for excellence in developing private sector and community support
- Eleven Vivaldi Concertos awarded Best Vivaldi recording of 1997 in Italy by the Jury of the Premio Internazionale del Disco

1997

- Jeanne Lamon receives the M. Joan Chalmers' National Award for Artistic Direction
- Eighth JUNO nomination for Handel's Water Music

1996

- Awarded the Echo Klassik Award for Best Orchestra of the Year, the German equivalent of the American Grammy Award
- Jeanne Lamon awarded the prestigious Muriel Sherrin Award by the Toronto Arts Council for her international success in music
- Lieutenant Governor's Award for the Arts ($25,000) for excellence in developing private sector and community support
- Cannes Classical Music Award for Haydn's Paris Symphonies. This award is the world's only classical music prize judged by eight international music magazines.

1995

- Awarded fourth JUNO Award for Bach's Brandenburg Concertos

1994

- Awarded third JUNO Award for Handel's Concerti Grossi
- Honorary Doctorate awarded to Jeanne Lamon by York University

1993

- Awarded second JUNO Award for Handel's Floridante

- Nominated for Early Music Group of the Year by International Classical Music
- Nominated for “Gramophone Record of the Year”

1992

- Three nominations for JUNO Awards for Sony Classical Releases:
 - Mozart German Dances
 - Mozart Overtures
 - Mozart Six Symphonies after Serenades

1991

- Tafelmusik Chamber Choir awarded the Healey Willan Prize for “for its consistently high level of artistic achievement and for its unique contribution to choral art in Canada.”

1990

- Awarded first JUNO Award for Boccherini’s Symphonies and Cello Concertos

1988

- “Ensemble of the Year” award by the Canadian Music Council